

29 pipnew43

Scale House

Amblecote. Dec-12th of

My dear Angel

May I tell you how deeply I sympathise with you & your dear sisters.
To lose two of the Pillars of the family as you have done within so short a time is a desolation as well as a sorrow. But - how good to have the love & certain hope - & to look back on a life in which our Lord's words were so fully realised - Except it became as little children - To hear of so sweet a nature & so beautiful a life is a help even to outsiders - & makes heaven the more desirable.
I am

i9p2pneu43

I am so glad dear Fanny is going to be near you in this sad time -

Please give my affectionate

Sympathy to your dear Sisters

Yours with love

Ch. Mason

10 p 1 p n e u 43

1914

Mr Alfred Brooks

to Wynnstay Gardens

Kennington

London W

Miss Honors
papers,
to PR

House of Education.
Ambleside.

Jan 9th 1914

My dear "Angel"

How sweet of you to think of us in reference to your dear Sister's papers.

Would you care to send me any that you think suitable

I think I might very well get in from time to time papers at places or pictures or poems, &c.

What a truly beautiful hymn you sent me as a New Year's greeting! I always take pleasure in Dr.
Brooke's hymns

House of Education.

Ambleside.

for their literary quality & their delicate Christian feeling.

I read all the news of you from dear Frances with much pleasure & interest - with love to you & your sister - affectionately

Chas Mason

1914 1915 1916

Sir Lauder
Brunton's
advice

Elipirau 43

Miss Angel Brooker -
10 Rutland House
Marble Road
Kensington
London W

111 p2 p1 a4 13

Scale How,
Ambleside.

211 p 3 p 11 u 4 3

House of Education,
Amble-side.

How much we sympathize with Mr. Brooke in this family. 25th 1871
Reverend Mr. Stopford
Brooke

My dear Angel

My heart- friends

for you two dear ladies especially, that you have lost another of the noble band of brothers & at the same time, the distinguished head of your family.

It must be a great comfort to you that Mr. Brook does not seem to have suffered much at the end, & so much creates a comfort-

House of Education,
Ambleside.

That he has so beautifully and fully filled his life to the very end.

These things are comforts no doubt, but - how much greater a comfort - that he has entered upon what he had long known

how to appreciate as the one perfect & sufficient joy!

To hear of such a hope realised brings the sweetness of the end nearer to us all - how much more to you who loved him.

Fanny had just

1916 ill p8pn-eu43

Love to you &
your dear Sister.

With warm love & loving sympathy.

We shall long to hear if you both keep fairly well.
With much loving sympathy, always,
your affectionate Aunt

all p9pneu43

Scale Hall,

Ambleside.

29. 4. 13

My dear "Angel"

Thank you exceedingly for the great service you have done me in getting together an opinion from Sir Lancelot Barnard. It is very kind indeed of him to write at such length.

Scale How,
Ambleside.

For I think it not-improbable that many of the Dr. Schott's patients have approached him for advice.

I mean to venture to write but if you get an opportunity, may give him my very grateful thanks.

I wonder what you

211p11pneu43

Scale How,
Ambleside.

I & dear Fanny will do together this summer.

I always enjoy your time together - it does her so much good -

Also, she tells me all the news of you & Miss Cecilie - so I keep up with your doings.

I suppose you too.
Are having this glorious weather with love & sweetest peaceful hearts
v. affectionately
Charles Williams

ii2p1pneu43
1914

House of Education,
Ambleside.

Dec. 15th, 1914

My dear 'Angel' -

Imagine a tardy word of thanks for the Testaments which I was very glad to have & which are circulating among the Belgian colony next-door. My particular Belgians were exceedingly pleased to have them.

I rejoice that dear James

212p2pneu43

House of Education,
Ambleside.

is going to have the rest of some pleasant hours I share with you. The war lies heavily upon her - all the more so because of the dear nephews. & there is besides the usual year end fog for all of us!

Much love to both dear
Sisters.

affectionately yours
Ch. Mason

P.R.

i 13 p 1 pnc 43

Min Angel Broth

The Hotel

Warden Bridge

Ireland.

Co. Wicklow.

H3p2pneu43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

her not does not - could quit strong
 yet. Don't let her go back before she is fit.
 Now Lenox you + me
 I should like to join your delightful trio!
 I know grips + cranks getting fly round
 in a delightful way.
 Tell her dear J. that - I can conceive of no circumstances which can or shall take her away now I get her within 3 weeks! She has not told me when she leaves Dublin.

 I rejoice much in the thought of your coming here by & by. We already have we been to the City since I came back

each time with persons disciples - + I remember the delightful afternoon you & I spent in that shattered work of mountain ground.

How I told you with my own 'hands' how I rejoice in the lovely little Sketch of Kelmsay you sent me at - times?
It was very sweet of you to give it me.

Death of W. William Brooke T14p1pneu43

Miss Angel Brooke

Herbert Street

i14p2pn-eu43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

il4p3pneu43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

My dear Angel
Please let me

enclose a word of warm sympathy to you & your dear
Sisters

It must be an hourly address to 3/

Though perhaps less since your invalid has been able to get about a little but those little essays of strength are themselves sad when they do not promise better things.

God be with your dear household - an ever present help

Fanny misses much in not getting you with her in this Paris trip -

She needs a little change - she is getting tired - please give my love to your sisters & with much to you ^{affectionately} C. Mason

2
See so gay & delightful & personage under a cloud of suffering & Mr. William Brooke has been for many years a sort of roof tree over you all has he not?

Fanny feels the sadness for you very much I can see.

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

My dear 'Angel'

I was so pleased to hear of you yesterday.

Do come with her

Brook to Walsley

I don't know when

Jim to get a bit of his horse - unless she will come on

Sunday -

Long John +

with her Ch. Broder

C. L.

Saty morning.

Libripneu43

John Angel Brock
Helena Ann

i15p2pneu43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

The House of Education,
Ambleside

My dear Mr. Mason,
I have been very busy lately in getting things done have tried on to I am resting
in my dressing.
from this afternoon
I shall not move,

115 p4 pneu 43

the great-pleasure of seeing you.

Please give my warmest love to

Mr. Brook &

Yr. Sister - I

do hope I shall feel a little of you all when I get back.
I hope you will

i15p5pneu43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

My dear Jim Brook

Is it too far to expect you this evening? I feel selfish to think of it - but would it make it prettier behaved from if we went

In a walk either before or after tea - What do you say to a ridiculous 3.30

cup of tea & then we should go for a walk. I don't feel inclined to give up the pleasure of getting you & Miss Brooke.

Please send a verbal message, telling me how the Mrs. Brooke is (appears you
C. W. Mason